How Mini-IMANI benefits your child:
- Helps your child develop a love of reading, storytelling and literature
- Enables your child to develop strong spelling and language skills
- Creates a sense of social responsibility
- Builds a cultural identity and broadens knowledge of other cultures and history
- Empowers child to speak up and share their opinions
- Develops academic independence

Fall Registration takes place at the Parent & Child Information Session on Sunday October 10th 3:30 PM at the NEW Charles H. Bullock School

Everyone must attend the Parent & Child information session on October 10th.
Children will participate and be featured in the New Mini IMANI video while the parents learn about all the exciting new changes and additions to the program.
