Please join Montclair SEPAC on February 5 from 7 – 9pm at Nishuane School, 32 Cedar Ave, Montclair, NJ 07042

Guest Speakers
Mary Funari, of Funari Parent Coaching
Stacey P. Pinilis, LCSW, Psychotherapist and Parent Consultant

Will lead a discussion on communication between children and adults:

"The 3-Minute Moment"

At this meeting, we hope to empower parents, teachers and paraprofessionals in taking the extra moment to ease conflict and frustration on the part of the child and the adult. We hope to see you there!

Mary W. Funari, a PCI Certified Parent Coach® and Approved Instructor of "The Art of Positive Parenting", sees clients privately in her Montclair office and offers educational workshops at preschools and community organizations. She is a passionate advocate for parents of special needs children, and strives to empower all parents with positive, practical tools for creating a peaceful home environment where mutual respect and cooperation are shared values among family members.

Stacey P. Pinilis, LCSW, offers individual and group psychotherapy and parenting consulting. Stacey specializes in assisting parents with the challenges of raising kids. After working closely with the Nishuane School Safety Team designed to prevent bullying, she developed a program called Parenting With A Pause, a Conscious Parenting model which gives parents more ability to make changes in their families. Stacey also works as a Field Liaison for Rutgers University School of Social Work graduate students.

Free Childcare provided; due to potential food allergies, we request that no food be brought into the childcare room.

WHAT IS MONTCLAIR SEPAC? Montclair Special Education Parent Advisory Council (SEPAC) is a volunteer group of parents and guardians that provides input to the district as well as support and information to parents and caregivers of children with special needs.
