

Restorative Justice Edgemont Elementary School

It was wonderful to see everyone at Back to School Night. The three core principals of Restorative Justice continue to be the main focus of our implementation plan for Edgemont School.

1. Creating just and equitable learning environments.
2. Nurturing healthy relationships
3. Repairing harm and transforming conflict.

The 2023 theme for this year's United Nations International Peace Day 9/21 focuses on Sustainable Development Goals. Learn more. As a team we are discussing ways we can move Edgemont School towards environmental sustainability.

Friday 9/22 at 6pm begins the school wide Hispanic Heritage Month celebration.

Check in Questions to talk with your children about Hispanic Heritage month:

What does Hispanic/Latine Heritage Month mean to you?

Can you name a few famous Hispanic/Latine individuals who have made significant contributions to the world? What do you admire about them?

Are there any Hispanic/Latine traditions or celebrations that you are familiar with or have participated in?

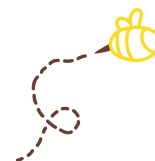

How can we celebrate and respect Hispanic/Latine heritage not only during Hispanic/Latine HeritageMonth but throughout the year?

Have you ever studied or learned about the history of Hispanic/Latine communities' contributions to the United States? What did you discover?

Be Safe Students.

Be Respectful Peacemakers.

Be Responsible Learners.

Restorative Justice (RJ) is an indigenous philosophy that emphasizes building relationships. If there is a need to repair harm caused by conflict and wrongdoing, restorative justice provides an opportunity for everyone impacted by an incident to come together in a safe space to address their feelings and needs, and reach a resolution that heals and restores relationships.
