

Restorative Justice Edgemont Elementary School

RJ circle this week!

It's time to begin to wrap up the school year and reflect and celebrate. Most of circle this week was to play the game and continue to get to know each other.

Mindfulness-Guided meditation- reflection on the school year from the first day to today.

Team Building Game: Whodunit? Write on a piece of paper something that you have done in your life. Something interesting, funny, cool, or adventurous. Put it in a basket. Pass the basket and take one. Take turns and read it aloud and guess Whodunit?

Check in questions of the week: How are you feeling? What do you think other people would say is your best quality?

Restorative Justice (RJ) is an indigenous philosophy that emphasizes building relationships. If there is a need to repair harm caused by conflict and wrongdoing, restorative justice provides an opportunity for everyone impacted by an incident to come together in a safe space to address their feelings and needs, and reach a resolution that heals and restores relationships.
